

Homework Packet – Week 9

Due Friday.

1. Flashcards
2. Capitalization and Their, They're, and There worksheets.
3. To review for Friday's vocabulary test, we will play Pictionary. Please create an illustration for each of the fictional forms.
4. Read 30 minutes every night.

Word List
fictional form	fable	myth	play
drama	legend	novel	short story

Definitions

fictional form The format of the writing. For example, novel, short story, play, etc.

drama A piece of fiction written especially for dramatic production.

fable A short narrative ending with a moral that sometimes uses animal characters that speak and act like humans.

legend An unconfirmed story passed down from generation to generation, especially one believed to be historical.

myth A traditional, typically ancient story dealing with supernatural beings, ancestors, or heroes, usually of Greek, Roman, or Norse origin.

novel A long work of fiction.

play A piece of fiction written especially for dramatic production.

short story A brief work of fiction.