

Homework Packet Week 4

This homework packet is due on Friday, October 2. We may work on the packet at school so please make sure you bring it to class with you everyday.

1. Cut the flashcards on the line. Draw a picture on the front that will provide you with a clue for what the word means. Write the definition on the back.
2. Complete the Pictionary page.
3. Complete the puzzles.
4. Study your flashcards (there will be a vocabulary test on these words on Friday).
5. Read 30 minutes every night.

address bar
desktop

home page
knowledge

main idea
related

search engine
table of contents

address bar The space at the top of the screen where you type the web address.

desktop (dEHsktop) noun, adjective

1. The top of a desk.
2. The metaphor used to portray file systems on a computer. A desktop consists of pictures, called icons, which show files available on the computer.
3. Computer designed to sit on your desk.

home page The introductory page for a Web site.

knowledge (noluhj) noun Everything that one knows or understands about something.

main idea The most important idea of a paragraph, passage, or whole piece of writing.

related (rihlaytihd) adjective To show or have a relationship to or between; connect.

search engine A Web site that helps you search for information on the Internet through the use of key words.

table of contents Located at the front of a book or magazine; it shows how the book or magazine is organized and gives page numbers of chapters and or articles.